

THE LOADING DOCK

Cocktail Menu

Full Bar Available

THE NEXT ISSUE $9

This building houses the Berrien County Record, Michigan's oldest continuously operated newspaper since 1867. Roll up your shirtsleeves & join newspaper greats when you order your choice of bourbon in our take on a smoked old-fashioned.

NOD TO THE PAST $8

In honor of the two main men who poured blood, sweat, and tears into this building: Eugene Bradley Clark and George R. Rich. House made bloody mary mix + Tito's, Tajin rim, and garnished with celery and a slim jim.

SERIAL NO. 2 $6

A traditional screw driver with Tito's, honoring our elevator, the oldest screw-driven elevator in the state of Michigan.

AVIATION $9

Channel your inner Amelia Earhart with this purple, flapper-style gin cocktail. Made with Empress 1908, crème de violette, and lemon.

TISA'S CHOCOLATE 'TINI $9

Enjoy a dessert cocktail that packs a punch, with Baileys, Mozart Chocolate Creme, vanilla vodka, and creme de cacao.

AXLEWORKS 75 $10

The modern axle was invented where you're standing (or thereabouts). Here's to the inventors and engineers who came before us, and those who drink to them with Hendricks Flora Adora, prosecco, lemon juice + simple syrup for a classic finish.

SEX IN THE LOADING DOCK $8

We're pretty sure it happened in the secret passageway upstairs. Maybe not the Loading Dock itself, but we wouldn't rule it out. With Captain Morgan instead of vodka, try this scandalous twist on the traditional sex on the beach.

EUGENE, JR. $8

E. B. Clark, Jr. only lived to be 29, & we're convinced he's still here. Tenants often report encountering him. We're happy to raise a glass to his continued company. What's more cosmopolitan than dying young? Our take on a classic cosmo with Absolut Citron + Cointreau.
